RE: BEN EVERINGHAM REFERENCE

To Whom It May Concern,

Ben Everingham worked for me on Hamilton Island for almost 6 months. In that time, I found him to be reliable, honest, hard working, polite, professional and friendly. He always held himself well in the workplace, was on time and well groomed. He was professional yet friendly to guests, willing and helpful to other colleagues and eager to perform. He has a level headedness and maturity that is beyond his years.

During his stint at Romano's he worked himself from a runner (food and drinks), to holding his own section within a remarkable timeframe. His sections were one of the busiest and yet he was always on top of everything - not easy in the restaurant as it is a high volume, premium venue. Following his success in the floor, I also started to place him into other roles. By the time he left the island, he was successfully running the pass and would've been a great host assist - in addition to serving and support roles.

His attitude was always positive, nothing was too much trouble and he received many compliments - from guests, colleagues and management. He won the eminence program for the quarter, but due to the cyclone was unable to stay to claim it. His eminence nomination and win is a testament to him and his abilities, constantly striving for the best and going above and beyond in all his interactions.

I would highly recommend him for employment, and would rehire him in an instant.

If you require any further information or details, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards,

Tenneille Stone
