

CATHOLIC JUNIOR COLLEGE

To whom it may concern

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION FOR BENJAMIN TAN CHANG BOON

Reference Name: Low Chun Wei

Current Title: Teacher

Current Company: Catholic Junior College (MOE)

Relationship to Applicant: Form Teacher in 2010 (JC1) and Student Council Teacher in 2011 (JC2).

Benjamin is a frank and generous boy who is well-liked by his teachers and classmates. He is willing to help friends in need and is unafraid to provide constructive feedback that will help others to improve. In class, Benjamin took initiatives and responsibilities in rendering his service to his teachers and classmates. He was very accommodating in carrying out his duties, and could be depended upon to carry out tasks with very little supervision. With such personable qualities, Benjamin should have no problems adapting to the demands of higher learning and definitely has great potential to excel in life. As a student, Benjamin is humble and respectful as evidenced by his strong work ethic and deep sense of perseverance. Although Benjamin did not always excel in his studies, he always approached it with a determination to continually better himself.

In Student Council, Benjamin was elected by his peers to lead the Community Involvement Wing as the Head of Department. As a HOD in the Executive Committee of the Student Council, Benjamin led a team of councilors in the conceptualization, planning and execution of many School events. As a role model to his peers, Benjamin is always cheerful and positive, taking failures and obstacles in his stride. He is self-motivated and influenced his peers to press on during tough times. Some of the events that he had contributed to in his Council days include Blood Donation Drive 1 and 2, Nominees' Camp, CJC Orientation, hosting Japanese students from Sonobe High School during their visit to CJC, hosting students from Swiss Cottage Secondary School during their visit to CJC, Teachers' Day Celebration and Organizing Graduation Night for the Graduates of 2010. Benjamin is also the Student-In-Charge for CJC Open House 2011 that contributed to the publicity of CJC for the incoming JC1 students.

Yours Sincerely
LOW CHUN WEI

